There are certificates for 1st, 2nd & 3rd places in each class, plus the overall winner prizes (£30, £20, £10, & children's/fun class prizes) And the Summer Show overall winner has the honour of their name on the Aylett Trophy Cup!

This year the children's categories are open to all children (not just CNAAs members) as part of the RHS Dig Together Day. So get your children and their friends to bring along the longest weed, a vegetable 'face' or 'animal', or any vegetable, fruit or herb grown from seed.

For further details and entry forms, please look at our website:
www.stalbansallotments

We look forward to seeing you there.
